Dr. Ernest Pickering has several responsible and demanding positions all under the title of President of Baptist Bible College. His combination of dynamic preaching and capable leadership make him a man well-loved and respected—especially by the B.B.C. family. Mrs. Pickering ably fills the role of secretary and wife—and, without Dawn and Lloyd, the Pickering household would not be complete.

Supervisors . . . Guiding Dorm Life

Dorms 1 (Ridley), 2 (Shaffer), and 3 (Ketcham) house men students and are supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Davis, and Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Strader, respectively. For the first time the White House is a girls' dorm. "8" —its First Lady is Miss Jean Shawver.

The lady residents of B.B.C. live in Dorms 4-7. Dorm families are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and Wendy who live in Dorm 4 (Thomson), Dr. and Mrs. Robert Williams in Dorm 5 (Vibbard), and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stoneking and Kurt and Kent in Dorm 7 (Woolsey). Miss Linda Strain is the "Mom" of Dorm 6 (Fletcher).

Bangladesh and its need for medical missionaries were presented by Miss Karen Carder (above), who also had a special ministry to the women on our campus. Finally, Rev. Orlan Wilhite (top right), former missionary to the Philippines and now pastor of the First Baptist Church, North Tonawanda, N.Y., and Rev. William Park, Jr. (left), of High Point Bible Conference, Geigertown, Pa., highlighted the importance of the relationship of missions with the pastor and the local church.

A Refreshing Moment in Floral Splendor

Rain failed to dampen the festivities on the semester's final day. White latticed arches and picket fences . . . pillars trailing with English ivy . . . yellow daisies in brown wicker baskets . . . all added to our refreshment in the Spring Banquet's garden setting at the Casey Inn. After dinner, we relaxed to enjoy the Chamber Singers' concert of sacred music and anticipated the events of the morrow, Baccalaureate and Commencement.

WELCOME TO OUR

A Weekend We'll Never Forget! Visitors, Dedication, . . .

Prior to B.B.C.'s biggest weekend ever, Dr. Pickering hosted area businessmen, educators, and government officials, to promote community understanding. Then, on Friday, October 18, high school students from across America convened on campus to get acquainted with college life. In the midst of tours, seminars, and a musical/dramatic presentation, B.B.C. family and friends gathered for an historic occasion—the dedication of the Student Center. The keys of this "living building" were formally presented to Rev. Mark Jackson, chairman of the Board of Trustees, by Mr. Lloyd McCullough, contractor. A plaque was also presented by the college family to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Symonds in grateful appreciation for the gift of the Rodgers organ. Expressions of that evening were unanimous . . . our Student Center is truly a miracle from God!

. . . Homecoming, Crowds, Expectation, . . .

Saturday, October 19. It began with the Varsity Basketball team's victory over their Alumni opponents. Homecoming activities continued as crowds lined the streets and B.B.C. went on display for the borough of Clarks Summit. Expectation mounted as the day's festivities continued with B.B.C.'s soccer contest against P.C.B. and the halftime crowning of the 1974-75 Homecoming Queen by her predecessor, Miss Linda Hindal.

Lois Doss with escort, Ron Shupe.

A stunned Sue Franklin is overwhelmed as she is named 1974-75 Homecoming Queen. Her escort, Murray Ingerham, shares with her this emotion-packed moment.

Ruth Morris with escort, Wayne Morris.

Jackie Weeks with escort, Randy Gilmore.

. . . Queens, Tears, Roses, . . .

. . . Spirit, Victory, And a Perfect Ending.

The fans were not disappointed for the soccer team outplayed Philadelphia College of the Bible to a 5-1 victory. As the afternoon drew to a close, final preparations were made for the Fall Banquet. Guests arriving immediately discovered the relaxed, enjoyable, and "unwinding" atmosphere. Following dinner the freshman class was presented a trophy for their first-place trophy. A delightful conclusion was a musical presentation by guest artist, Ed Lyman—communicating that Christian music offers hope in contrast to the empty questions of secular songs. The program concluded the entire weekend with the reminder that the Christian life is vital and growing . . . truly "Christ Lives Through Us"!

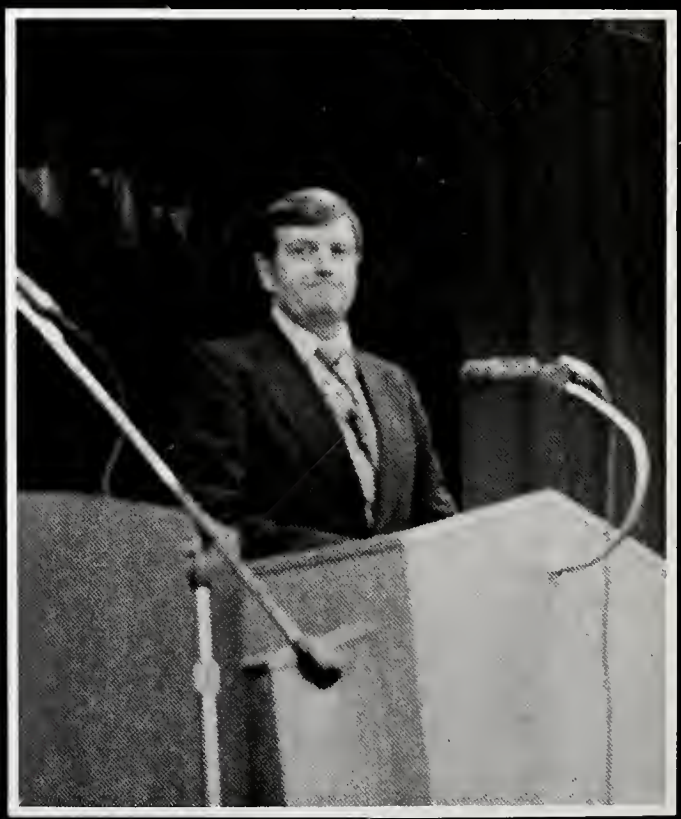
Our Own Dr. Haycock—

A Well-Deserving Alumnus

Distinguished for her diversity of credits and achievements—a Ph. D. in Educational Technology, membership in three top national honor societies, listed in Outstanding Educators of America, contributing to several books on Christian education published by Moody Monthly Press and Evangelical Teacher Training Association.

Honored and appreciated by students and alumni because her outstanding talent has been directed in serving BBC for thirty-two years. The Alumni Association honored DR. RUTH HAYCOCK with the 1975 ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR award.

The WINTER BIBLE CONFERENCE—spiritual revival, academic reprieve, refreshing beginning to our spring semester. Challenging preaching—Dr. John Whitcomb presented timely messages on God's magnificent creation; with wit and practical insight Dr. John White preached from Hebrews; and Dr. Don Sewell spoke on relevant issues of the Christian walk. Inspiring music—Mr. Mike Coyle, vocal soloist and French horn artist thrilled students and visitors with his musical selections, and Mr. Don Kruger dynamically led the congregational singing and the volunteer Conference choir.



Spiritual Renewal For Spring Semester

The Classic Players' production of "As You Like It" highlighted the Thanksgiving weekend: 1. Mel Walker portrays Orlando de Boys, the young man who learns to love a woman in spite of her fickleness. 2. Touchstone, the clown (Wayne Morris), makes it clear to William, a country bumpkin (Paul Wallace), that he has fallen in love with Audrey (Peggy Bartling), and plans to marry her. 3. In the Forest of Arden, the melancholy Jacques (Stuary Wilson), philosophizes for the other lords banished from the court of Duke Senior (Gary Lightner). 4. Silvius, a shepherd (Steve Franklin, woos in vain his sweetheart, Phebe (Elizabeth McDonald). 5. Orlando and his devoted old servant, Adam (Marty Dittmar), grow weary as they seek their fortunes together. 6. Rosalind (Laura Seiler) flees for her life from her uncle's court, taking her cousin, Celia (Brenda Ingerham), and Touchstone with her. 7. In the guise of the shepherd youth, Ganymede, Rosalind teaches Orlando the caprice of women and the stability of love. 8. Comedy reigns supreme in the person of Monsieur Le Beau (Dennis Silver), a courtier. 9. Orlando's eldest brother, Oliver (Dick Ahlgrim), tries to do away with him at the play's onset, but eventually is reconciled to him after he and Celia fall in love. 10. The final scene reunites Rosalind with her father, Duke Senior, and culminates with the marriages of the four couples whose romances testify that life and love are "as you like it!"

College Choir Proclaims the Christmas Message

Mr. Gilbert Haglin directed the sixty-voice College Choir in the opening and closing sections of the annual Christmas Concert on the nights of December 12 and 13. Uniting their voices in jubilant song were: (Row 4) Scott Walker, Brian Hay, Dawn Pickering, Jean Mosher, Toby Wyse, Mike Ellis, Debbie Dermott, Judy Weer, Doris Jacobs, Dan Stuenzi, Paul Howdyshell, Rhoda Williams, Kris Smith, Dennis Silver, and Tom Weer; (Row 3) Tim Matchett, Al Whitmire, Carolyn Lewis, Marlayne Darling, Paul Sarver, Tim Grandy, Barb Buhrow, Debbie Millheim, Joy Tingley, Lee Goddard, Scott Ames, Becki Bobbett, Frances Sorrentino, Bob Denzel, and Ray Dettmer; (Row 2) Stan Lang, Steve Kintner, Peggy Austin, Brenda Franklin, Roger Shaffer, Dave Girton, Mimi Russell, Sue Johnson, Valorie Schrage, Kim Boycan, Paul Goodrich, Kay McClintic, Sandra Schotts, Rande Thorpe, and Bill Anderson; (Row 1) Mr. Haglin, Dan Williams, Bill Jackson, Elaine Maitland, Sue Thompson, Bonnie Barnett, Melody Fry, Rachel Jahnke, Tim Weeks, Denise Weise, Becky Hayward, Valerie Neisen, Becki Whitman, Jo Anne Orr, Roger Hemmings, and Bill Glenn. Variety was contributed to the Choir's ministry by the Sounds of Praise Octet (above): Rob Fry, Jean Mosher, Becki Whitman, Brian Hay, Bill Anderson, Dawn Pickering, Denise Weise, and Dennis Silver.

Holiday Concert Enhanced by Chamber Singers

Girls' Chorus Creates a Light Yuletide Blend

Lullabies and carols highlighted this exclusively feminine group's contribution to the Christmas Concert. Directed by Mrs. Nancy Troupos, Girls' Chorus personnel included: (Row 3) Esther Thompson, Carol Thomas, Joyce Mensch, Kathy Morse, Beth Hayden, Carolyn Lake, Joyce Moore, and Laura Hilgar; (Row 2) Janet Cummings, Myra Hicks, Donna Damcott, Jeannie Harris, Gail Spencer, Elizabeth McDonald, Jane Moreaux, and Ruth Wright; (Row 1) Mrs. Nancy Troupos, Debbie Kester, Kathy Greenslade, Patty Edwards, Dorothy Jayne, Kathy Margeson, Glenna Tafferty, Barb Visti, and Sue Caruthers.

Officers And Accompanists: Inseparable From Choir Ministry

Leading the routine and social activities of the Girls' Chorus are (left): Carolyn Lake, Vice-President; Nancy Troupos, Director; Kathy Greenslade, Social Committee; Gail Spencer, President; Jeannie Harris, Secretary/Treasurer; and Beth Hayden, Social Committee. And no choir can be without its accompanist (above): Janet Cummings, Girls' Chorus; Becky Hayward, College Choir; and Diane Compton, Chamber Singers.

The faculty and staff starred at the Winter Formal on the evening of December 14, bringing peals of laughter and somber moments of appreciation. An hilarious sketch of "Little Red Riding Hood" was followed by dramatizations and readings describing the history of well-known Christmas carols. At the conclusion of the program, Dr. Pickering was honored with the presentation of a large birthday cake. A reception with light refreshments followed, capping the evening of delightful entertainment.

Faculty And Student Productions Reveal Diverse Talents

Featuring the Oratorio Chorus, soloists, and a full orchestra, Handel's "Messiah" was presented on February 15. Sounds that filled the Student Center Cafetorium ranged from the quiet strains of the "Pastoral Symphony" to the triumphant splendor of the "Hallelujah Chorus." Once again, Mr. Charles Wilkes of the Music Department ably directed the annual performance.

Musicans Display Results of Training

One of the requirements for the degree, Bachelor of Sacred Music, is the performance of a recital during the senior year in the area of one's major. This spring, Bonnie Barnett (left), a composition and conducting major, directed the Children's Choir of Heritage Baptist Church in a children's cantata of her own work. Organ major Bob Wigden (below), gave his senior recital on April 25.

The Heartbeat Of B.B.C.

. . . is the concern of each individual to serve his Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Dr. Pickering has reminded us, "The Lord always gives direction to His people; that is His will." Our part is to follow those directions He has given us . . .

"Pray without ceasing."

"Neglect not the gift that is in thee."

"Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God."

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."

Best Season Ever For B.B.C. Soccer!

The 9-3-2 record was accomplished by a particularly well-rounded team which performed strongly at each position. Brian Boycan (top left) was always a threat on the record-breaking offense. Roger Jacobs (top right) and Greg Eby (right) were part of the strong defensive unit. Craig Malcolm (above) was very successful in guarding the goal for the Defenders.

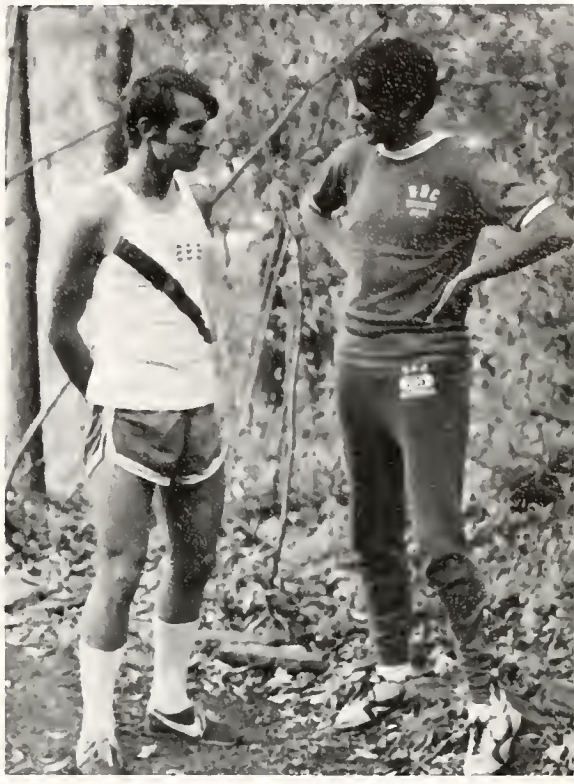
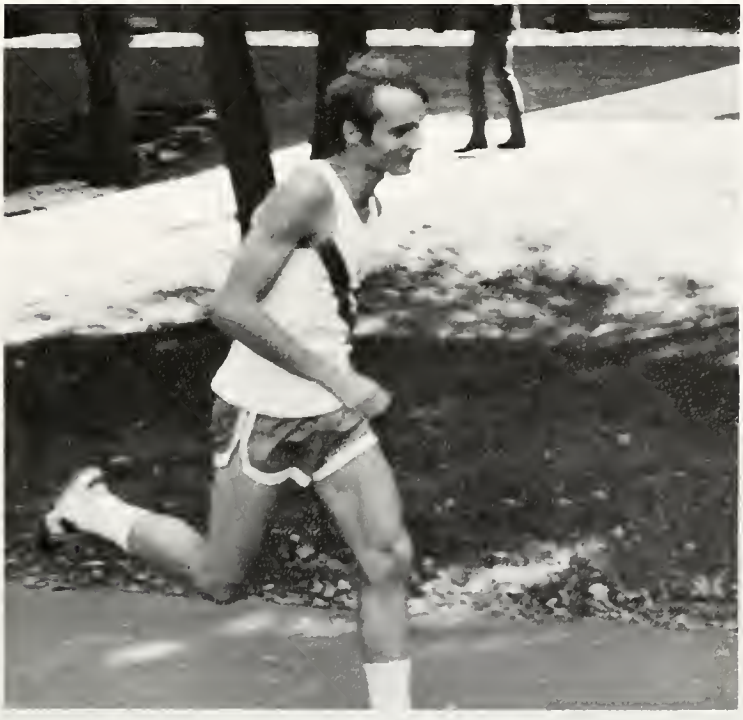
Conference Champs Again . . .

The 1974 Defender Harriers won the NACC Conference chanpionship for the 3rd straight year—they also "ran away" with the first place trophy at the Houghton Invitational. The team pictured below is: Ruth Damon, manager; Jim Burt; Steve Wunder; Scott Walker; Coach Chris Davis; Jack Johnston; Dave Hubble; Don Boothe; John Kauffman; and Tom Chrysler.

Paul Hanson, pictured below with Coach Davis, was selected Most Valuable Runner for the entire conference as well as for the Defenders. He finished 3rd at the Houghton Invitational at which Dave Hubble (bottom) received the trophy for the team. Another vital team member was manager Ruth Damon (middle left) who gave valuable assistance at all times.





Cheerleaders Contribute to Success

Undoubtedly the enthusiasm of a crowd is a positive influence to a team victory. The '74-'75 "Defenderettes" used the advantage of their experience to generate vocal support from B.B.C. fans. From the sidelines of a cold soccer game to the beautiful new facilities of the gym, Patti Peters, Chris Decker, Sandy Spencer, Ann Marie Rowe, Pam Shaffer, and Sandi Park, captain, (pictured above right), "yelled, screamed, and cheered on our team."

The girls displayed not only athletic excellence but a genuine concern about the outcome of the games. Chris Decker (below left) exemplifies this combination characteristic of the squad.

J.V.'s Promote Spirit

Although J.V. cheerleaders are ususally thought to cheer at "minor" sports events, the team members they cheered for greatly appreciated their support. Always ready to serve or scream as shown by Terry Gurney (top right), the girls are (right): Terry, Debbie Brink, Joyce Sutliff, and Tina Jadick, captain.

New Sports Gain Interest

Although hampered by lack of practice and inexperience in game situations, the Volleyball Team (above left) had a winning year. Those who contributed to the fine 3-2 record were: Coach Trudy Cook, Esther Thompson, Jill Hickman, Brenda Franklin, LaVonne Griffis, Diane Burman, Laura Hilgar, and Debbie Millheim.

The young Tennis Team (above right) showed great improvement over the course of the season. The 1-3-1 record was no indication of how well the girls really played—they are: Joy Tingley, Gail Williamson, Dawn Pickering, Coach Trudy Cook, Jill Hickman, and Chris Decker.

Girls Continue Winning

WAYS...

Unity Leads Defenders to Victory!

Top:
Marty Littmar
Dale Mattox
Murray Ingerham
Roger Jacobs

Middle:
Don Whipple
Bob Eckman
Dan Gelatt
Dave Strope

Bottom:
Dan Wallin
Mel Walker
Tom Dillon

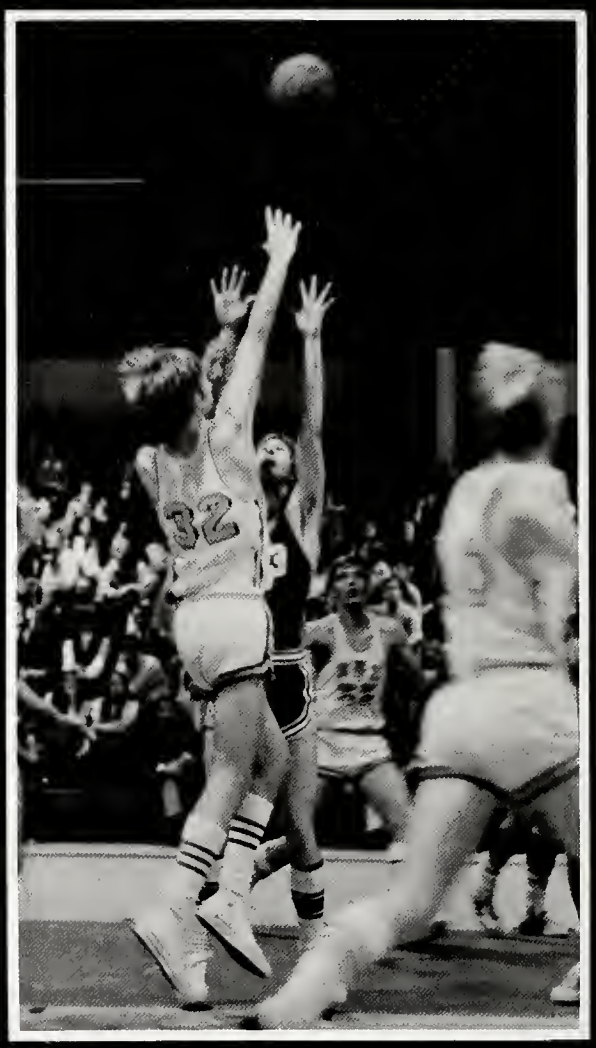
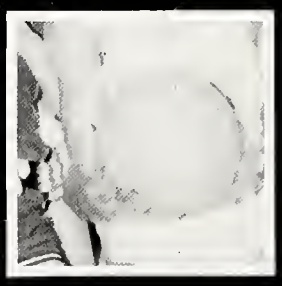
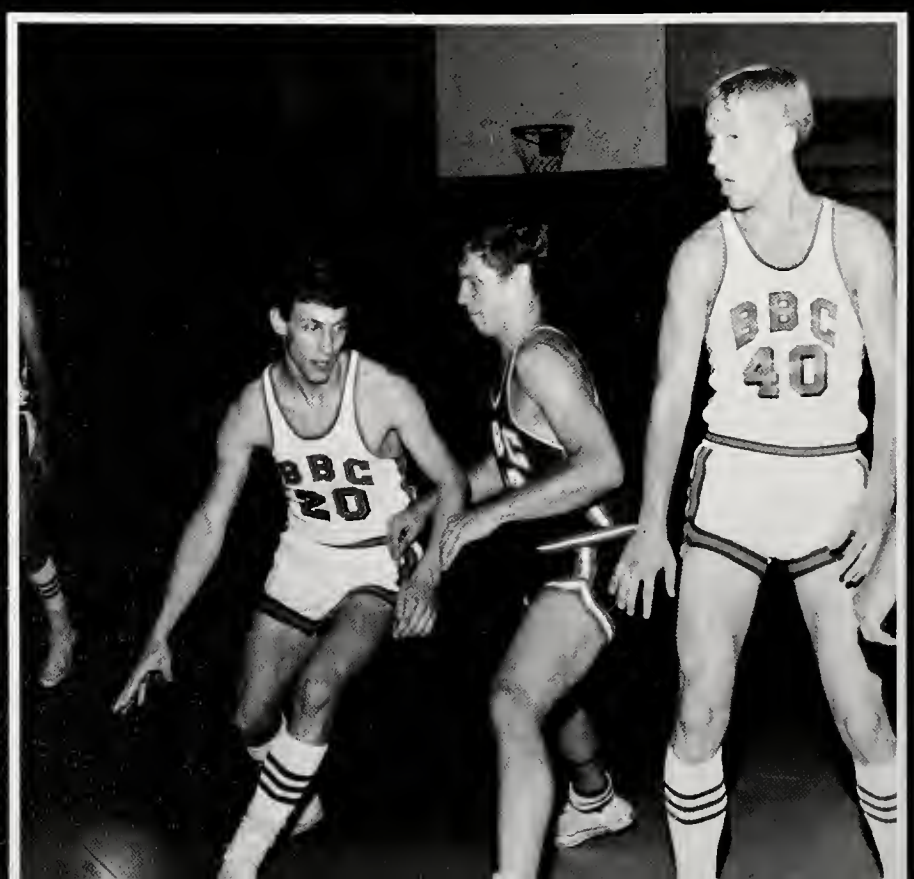
Defender games were packed with action: the defense was always prepared for a steal (below), and the offense constantly hustled for a basket. Senior team leaders Don Whipple (right) who was top scorer, Marty Dittmar (bottom left) and Dan Wallin (bottom right) were outstanding in both of these areas.







B.B.C. Wins Own Tourney

The hard work of Coach Huckaby in organizing B.B.C.'s first Home Tournament was rewarded (below right) by a Defender victory against 3 Conference opponents. No doubt a contributing factor to the victory was experience which the team has developed playing together over the past two seasons. Included among the veterans are Murray Ingerham (left) and Dave Strope (below), and Mel Walker. Newcomers to the team (below left) also contributed spirit and promising talent to complete the winning unity of the team.

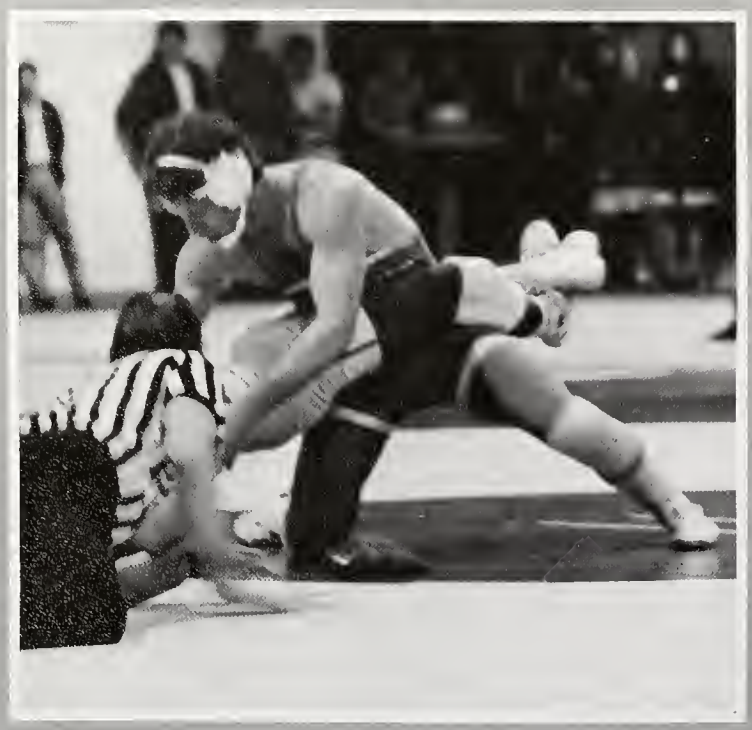
J.V.'s Display Potential

The J.V.'s prepared for future varsity action by playing excellent ball against a tough schedule. The team overcame many height disadvantages by their hustle and flashy shooting. Players include: (Standing) Mark Hufhand, Mark Schmitz, Scott Walker, Ralph Reamer, Kevin Colas, Rich Churchward. (Seated) Steve Dodd, Dennis Silver, Keith Pasani, Dave Malin, and Dave Wells.

Wrestlers Grapple With Inexperience

The 1974-75 Defender Wrestlers began their season with many questions: Who would fill the shoes of those who graduated? Could inexperienced wrestlers do well with such a tough schedule?—In addition, several injuries made their task even harder, but to overcome these obstacles the Defenders had outstanding coaching from Chris Davis and former B.B.C. great Russ Schelling (Top) and top team leadership from captain Mike Onyon (Top). Team members include: (Standing) Tom Greenslade, Tom Brittain, Dan Williams, Jack Johnston, Joe Jeffreys, Ray Myers, Jerry Rivenburg, Le Anne Hocker, manager, Calvin Keeler, Rita Bolling, manager, (Kneeling) Dan Thompson, Tim Ahlgrim, Dave McDonald, Mike Onyon, and Coach Chris Davis.

Individual talent was evident throughout the season as displayed by Tom Brittain (Right), Jerry Rivenburg (Below), and Tim Ahlgrim each of whom defeated their opponents pictured.



Two of the highlights of the season were the early season home victory over P.C.B. in which Tim Bantle (Top) pinned his opponent at 126 lbs., and the fourth-place finish in the first B.B.C. invitational tourney. Rich Meister (Middle Left) took first place in the 150 lb. division, and Mike Onyon and Tom Brittain (Above) both finished second in their weight classes. The experience of Russ Schelling helped Jerry Rivenburg (Left) to a third place victory in his class.

Seniors Unite Individual Abilities To Glorify Christ

"I have gained much from my preparation at B.B.C., but I am excited to get out and put what I have learned into the ministry - that is how God would want it . . ." reflects a senior in completing his collegiate career. The class members characterize their class song, "To God Be The Glory," by utilizing various gifts to honor God. Their officers exemplify this quality and join President Don Whipple in moving forward: Marty Pittman, Vice-President; Wanda Southworth, Secretary; Jim Fraser, Treasurer; Linda Hindal, Cecelia Williams (not pictured), and Roger Hemmings, ASC Representatives; and Steve Kintner, SMA Representative.

. . .over with an impressive number of students? Not quite. If it's numbers you're after, look elsewhere. But if you're interested in a post-baccalaureate graduate school that stresses complete loyalty to God's Word, employees highly trained and experienced professors, emphasizes sound scholarship, accents the vital, victorious spiritual life, gives you a thorough training in the Biblical languages and teaches you to think, then possibly you should consider B.B.S.T. Baptist Bible College and School of Theology has both diversity and direction. We seek to respect the differences of personality and spiritual gifts which are part of "God's richly varied grace." We look for our direction to the Giver of these gifts and the Head of the Church, the Lord Jesus Christ.

—Dr. Ernest Pickering

We Thank YOU

In penning these last words of my yearbook career, I had hoped to be profound, or maybe eloquent, but have decided that the best way to say good-bye is to say it simply. I want, first of all, to express my gratitude to Sue for the use of her page and for the intensely rich learning experience it was working for her. Secondly, Murray is certainly deserving of my thanks as he so politely "shared" Sue with me during what seemed, I am sure, an interminable five months. Thirdly, I would like to thank Tom for not bringing my mattress up to the office, and, fourthly, would like to say that this whole project would have been fruitless had it not been for the encouragement and prayer support of many, many friends. Finally, I owe to my Heavenly Father all the glory for everything that transpired during the formulation of this labor of love. I pray that the 1975 Tower will always testify to the faithfulness and [illegible] witnessed as it became a reality.

Because of Him, Bill Anderson

"For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he has sufficient to finish it?" (Lk. 14:28). I didn't realize this verse existed until a few days ago—it made me stop and consider how we did finish the 1975 Tower. How could an editor lose with a fantastic adviser whose advice was always "just right," a loyal assistant editor who did more than produce beautiful pages but actually gave a part of himself, a staff who was always willing to pitch in when their "turn" came around, praying friends and family, and a certain person who was extremely patient. However, even in considering these pluses, it is evident that capability does not lie there but that "our sufficiency is of God."

Just as God made the simple daisy an essential part of His flawless creation—I am grateful that God has made me His child as part of His perfect plan.

Thanks to all, Sue Franklin
